PASSED AND ADOPTED, this Twenty-Fourth day of April, Two Thousand and Seven, by unanimous vote:

For the commendation of elevating and nurturing the study of Buddhism, including its immense art, culture, and history.

CHUNG TAI ZEN CENTER OF SUNNYVALE

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the County of Santa Clara Board of Supervisors does commend the

WHEREAS, on April 9, 2002 a dedication and purification ceremony will honor the newly renovated facility in the Chung Tai Zen Center of Sunnyvale;

WHEREAS, the Chung Tai Zen Center embodies in food drives, blood drives, hospital and palliative visits, mindfulness for disaster relief; such as

WHEREAS, the Chung Tai Zen Center of Sunnyvale welcomes people of all cultures and faiths, and serves as a refreshing spring for the spirit through study and practice; which reduce stress and anxiety in daily living, and help participants to practice compassion for self and others, and gain spiritual wisdom and peace of mind and

WHEREAS, the Chung Tai Zen Center of Sunnyvale offers a calming and tranquil environment in one of the very communities for people to learn the method of Buddhism, discovery the art of meditation, and accept the inherent wisdom within all of us.

WHEREAS, Venerable Master Wei Chung, founder of Chung Tai Chan Monastery, established Chung Tai Zen Center of Sunnyvale in March 2004, and

Adopted