Dear Board of Supervisors:

I am writing today because I'm unable to attend your meeting in person, but I want to urge you to support the 100th Anniversary Women's Suffrage Plan.

Our right to vote is under attack...from many many angles.

Women are at the forefront of activism today (and always) and deserve the support and *funding* of any plans to protect them, their rights to vote, and their rights in general.

Please support it!

Thank you so much for your consideration.

Best,
E

I am writing in support of Item 24 (100th Anniversary Women's suffrage Plan).

It is vitally important that this plan includes proactive strategies that protect suffrage, such as our effort to ensure that all individuals are counted in the 2020 Census and to increase voter registration and participation in the electoral process. These efforts should also engage our community partners to make a demonstrable impact on women's political equality in the County and provide models for similar efforts across the region, state and country.

Please consider and pass this crucially important piece of legislation

Sincerely,
Michelle Palermo-Rovira

The Board of Supervisors has been supportive to girls and women of Santa Clara through successful passage of the CEDAW Ordinance in December 2017 as well as declaring March as Women's History Month. We are truly grateful and appreciative to have the Board's support!

We call on you again to support and advocate for our girls and women for our county by showing your continued support at your upcoming Board meeting for several important items:

- #24 Approving funds to be transferred from the General Fund Contingency Reserve to launch a task force to lead proactive strategies to protect women's suffrage including through a resolution for Board consideration.
- #66 Pay equity report relating to pay equity in county employment and contracting.
- #67 Support for a resolution for Support for Our Lives on March 24th
- #96 Adoption of an ordinance relating to maternity and paternity leave.

I would like to personally thank you for your consideration and continued support!
